Protect Yourself from Spoofed Calls: Tips for TXBCU Members Stay Safe from Scams and Safeguard Your Personal Information

Spoofed calls are on the rise, targeting credit union members with scams designed to steal sensitive information. These calls often appear to come from trusted sources, such as our phone number, but they're actually from fraudsters. To identify spoofed calls, pay attention to unexpected requests for personal or financial information, urgent threats, or offers that sound too good to be true. Don't rely on caller ID alone, as scammers can manipulate phone numbers to look legitimate.

We will never initiate calls or text messages to members requesting details such as your PIN, debit/credit card number or other sensitive account information. Staying alert and cautious can help you avoid falling victim to spoofed calls and keep your finances secure. If you receive a suspicious call or text, hang up and contact us directly 361-855-4494.
